

Izutsu Yatsuhashi Co., Ltd.

Founded in 1805, weaving the story of Kyoto's heritage to the world

京名物 井筒八ッ橋

井筒八ッ橋は、「六段の調べ」などで知られる
箏曲の祖・八橋検校に由来します。
検校が教え伝えたと言われる京の堅焼き煎餅を
琴の形に仕上げ「八ッ橋」と名付けたのが始まりです。
パリッとした食感と、たちまち広がる
ニッキの香りをお楽しみください。

Three Advantages to Win Globally

Global Standard Long Shelf Life "180-Day Guarantee"

Unlike fresh sweets, using a traditional hard-baked method ensures a minimum 180-day quality guarantee without special additives.

This prevents product loss after ocean transport.

Globally Popular "Uji Matcha" Collaboration

A premium lineup of "Uji Matcha Yatsunashi" developed in collaboration with globally renowned Uji Matcha brands.

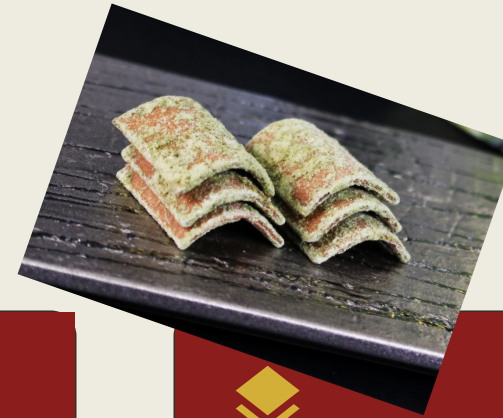

Unlocks high-end sales channels through cross-proposals pairing with tea.

Multi-faceted Packaging Tailored to Area Strategy

Dual-format strategy: traditional "Kabuki" design appealing to inbound tourists, and sophisticated resealable stand-up pouches that blend into modern cafe culture.

Maximizes reach across diverse sales channels.

"The crispy, crunchy texture is absolutely delightful."

"With its familiar cinnamon flavor, it pairs perfectly with morning coffee."

Why Izutsu Yatsuhashi is Chosen

Affinity with "Cinnamon"

The crispy, pleasant texture and rich, spicy flavor of nikki (cinnamon) naturally fit the food cultures of the West, Middle East, and ASEAN, driving high organic popularity on social media.

Luxury Experience Tour

Going beyond simple retail, we fully open our Gion Main Store and the historic "Kitaza" luxury bar to create the ultimate, exclusive "Kyoto Experience" for VIP buyers and premium global clients.

Reliable Export Support

Our products clear strict agricultural pesticide standards globally, including Taiwan. We fully support overseas distributors with rapid documentation in close partnership with MAFF.

Key Product Lineup

Kyoto Specialty: Izutsu Yatsuhashi

A traditional hard-baked confectionery shaped like a koto (Japanese harp). We have refined the ingredients and recipe to achieve a more aromatic, crispy, and lighter texture. Made completely without additives, this global standard model can be preserved at room temperature for over 180 days.

Uji Matcha Yatsuhashi

Layers of rich Uji matcha flavor on top of traditional Kyoto Yatsuhashi. An elegant taste created by the delicate harmony between the subtle sweetness of cinnamon (nikki) and the refined bitterness of Uji matcha.

Building a Sustainable and Robust Revenue Infrastructure

30%
5-Year Target for Overseas Sales Ratio

■ Stable & High Margin, Moving Away from Price Competition

With the unique brand value boasting "Kyoto's oldest orthodox story," we ensure high unit prices and a healthy profit structure without being exposed to bargain sales or excessive price competition.

■ Minimizing Waste Risk to the Absolute Limit

High inventory control with a maximum shelf life of 180 days. Minimizing waste and loss risks due to customs delays or unexpected supply chain disruptions.

■ Tapping into Premium Japanese Food Demand & Gen Z

The collaboration package with "Uji Matcha," which has immense appeal, will reliably capture trend-sensitive upper-middle-class consumers as new customers, extending beyond our existing customer base.

Connecting Tradition to the Next Generation and the World

“Loving Kyoto, Sharing Its Story”

Since our founding in 1805, Izutsu Yatsunashi-honpo has not merely preserved history, but has constantly embraced the winds of change to evolve.

Our challenge to reach a “30% overseas sales ratio (1.2 billion yen scale)” is not just a numerical sales target. It is a project to deliver the “story” that connects Kyoto's wonderful traditional culture and the authentic flavors preserved by our artisans to the smiles of people around the world.

Based on long-lasting trust, let us build a unique and irreplaceable partnership in the global market.
